Meet the TUTORS

SUMMER SCHOOL 2025

embroiderers' guild nsw

MICHELLE HUDSON

Michelle has been stitching for the last 35 years enjoying a variety of techniques including drawn and pulled work, Reticella, Hedebo and different varieties of needlelace.
A fascination with Hedebo embroidery has seen Michelle visit Yuki Pallis private museum in Japan in 2019 and more recently the Greve Museum in Denmark. Michelle has been inspiration from pieces in these collections to develop new designs.

MARY BROWN

Mary Brown was a Visual Arts Teacher in Catholic Senior Colleges for 20 years. She did the Certificated Course at the Royal School of Needlework in 2000-2001. From 2007 -2017 she was a Sessional Lecturer in the Fashion & Textile Department at UTS. In 2005, Sally Milner Publishing contracted her to write a book on Goldwork Embroidery, titled Goldwork Embroidery: Designs and Projects which was released in Australia and internationally in 2007.
Mary has been an accredited tutor for the Embroiderers' Guild of N.S.W. since 2003. She designed a 2-year modular course for the Guild titled the Contemporary Stitch & Design Course.

SHARYN HUTCHENS

Sharyn Hutchens has taught Metal Thread Embroidery (Goldwork), both traditionally and creatively, for many years. She loves the manner in which these threads reflect the light, either when stitched in different directions on a work or when they are used to add that extra something to a design. Sharyn enjoys sharing her knowledge and encouraging her students to relax and experiment with the different threads.
