2 Day Workshop
Saturday 4th January &
Sunday 5th January

Dip your toes into the world of possibilities offered by Pulled thread work to create a Pretty Petite Pillow.

Pulled Thread or Drawn Fabric is a counted thread technique that uses stitch tension to produce texture and pattern on the ground fabric. It is often used to replicate the delicacy of traditional lacework techniques. Inspired by the work of Norma Dicker this project uses basic stitches, contrasting thread colour and beads to create a petite square-sided pillow, perfect for use as a pincushion to display or gift, a special brooch, or a page weight for precious books. The workshop will cater for beginners to the technique but is also suited to those with some experience and is designed to be completed within the workshop time with little or no additional finishing required.
