Delivery and Collection

Each entry is to be delivered to the Guild Office in a padded bag clearly labelled with the entrant's name and title of work by 4.00pm 22 November 2023. Do not write your name on the work. A swing tag with the entrant's name and title of work should be pinned or tied to the work. This will be replaced by an entry number for judging so that the judges do not know who has entered each item. A picture labelled with your name and title of entry should be included in the bag for identification purposes. This does not have to be of high quality.

Members are responsible for the postage and insurance costs (if required) both to and from the Guild.
